

JOIN NJAWR FOR A LECTURE WITH
DIANE NICKERSON, Director
Mercer County Wildlife Center
Titusville, NJ

WILDLIFE SOS: Help, I found an animal, now what?

Date: Wednesday, October 31, 2018

Time: Noon-2pm

Location: Department of Environmental Protection (DEP)
Public Hearing Room, 1st floor
401 East State Street
Trenton, NJ 08619

COST: FREE

Registration deadline is October 29, 2018

Help, I found an animal! What should I do now?
Does it need my help? How do I know?
How do I safely rescue it? Where do I take it for care?
What is a wildlife rehabilitator and how do I find one?
How do I become a wildlife rehabilitator?
FIND OUT THESE ANSWERS AND MORE...

Please note that you must RSVP to attend, as seating is limited.
To RSVP, contact Peter Revilla at 609-292-0399 OR peter.revilla@dep.nj.gov with your first and last name and contact number. Your name will then be on the list when you arrive for the security staff. Please note that the DEP requires anyone entering the building to have one form of identification.

The New Jersey Association of Wildlife Rehabilitators (NJAWR) is a non-profit organization that serves as a resource for information and educational opportunities for wildlife rehabilitators and individuals in related fields.

Diane Nickerson is a wildlife rehabilitator for mammals, birds and reptiles for the last 30 years.

PARKING FOR DEP:

Station Plaza Parking Garage, “Nexus”, is a pay lot located at 50 Yard Avenue, Trenton, NJ (gps address).

There is also street parking close to DEP building with pay parking meters on: South Clinton Avenue, East State Street, West Canal Street and Armory Drive.

Red arrow=DEP entrance

Blue arrows=entrance to parking garage